INTERVENTION NOW UNLIKELY IN MEXICO

Both Mexican and United States Governments Authorized Mexican Troops to Cross United States Territory.

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Sept. 11.—Mexican intervention seems further off today. It is expected the rebel border raiding will be ended by the passage of Mexican troops through Texas and New Mexico, which was authorized yesterday by both the Mexican and United States governments.

Surrender of Agua Prieta Demanded.
[By Associated Press.]
Douglas, Ariz., Sept. 11.—The rebel leader, Col. Antonio Rojas, today formally demanded the surrender of Agua Prieta within twenty-four hours. Colonel Rojas says he has 1000 men. The federal garrison numbers 200.

Colquitt Consented for Troops to Pass Through.
[By Associated Press.]
Austin, Texas, Sept. 11.—Governor Colquitt said this morning he had given permission for Mexican troops to be transported across Texas soil.

Federals May Not Accept.
[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Sept. 11.—The Mexican federals may possibly not accept the opportunity to pass from El Paso, Texas, to Douglas, Ariz., because of the advantage it would give the rebels in knowing their movements.

Reported Surrender at Ojinaga.
[By Associated Press.]
Marfa, Texas, Sept. 11.—Reports received here today state that the federals surrendered Ojinaga at 5 o'clock yesterday evening to the rebels. These reports directly conflict with General Steever's report to Washington last night that the federals had driven the rebels from Ojinaga.

Surrendered While Commander Gone for Ammunition.
[By Associated Press.]
Marfa, Texas, Sept. 11.—A later report says Ojinaga was surrendered to

STEERS HAVE REACHED HIGH WATER MARK

Former President Lasater of Texas Cattle Raisers' Association Does Not Expect Further Advances.

[By Associated Press.]
Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 11.—Ed Lasater, former president of the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association, who is here attending a meeting of the executive committee of that organization, says steer prices have reached their zenith for this winter. He predicts Texas cattlemen will rush all their choice stuff on the market.

LATEST ARKANSAS ELECTION RETURNS

Statewide Lost by 12,000 Majority. Many Dry Counties Now in Wet Column.

[By Associated Press.]
Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 11.—The latest figures in the state election show the defeat of statewide prohibition by 12,000 majority. Many former dry counties under local option have gone wet, including Cleburne and Ouachita. Randolph, Grant, Madison, Prairie and Lincoln counties also are believed to have gone wet, though the returns are incomplete.

the rebels while Federal Commander Sanchez was at Presidio, Texas, trying to get ammunition for his men at Ojinaga. Reports received here state that five were killed in the Ojinaga fighting.

Cars Ordered to Transport Troops Through Texas.

[By Associated Press.]
El Paso, Texas, Sept. 11.—Cars were ordered to Juarez today by Mexican federals for loading troops to cross Texas and Arizona. The Americans in Douglas, Ariz., fear the rebels will attack the federals at the boundary, causing a battle to be fought practically on American territory.

BIG RANCH DEAL NEAR EL PASO

[By Associated Press.]
El Paso, Texas, Sept. 11.—The Beresford ranch in Chihuahua, Mexico, was today sold for $250,000 to Warren Bros. of Michigan.

DISTRICT COURT

Arrests in Grand Jury Indictments. Contested Election Cases Drag Along Slowly.

Sheriff Conlee reports arrests under indictments recently returned by the grand jury as follows:

Dewitt Thomas of Macy, charged with murder in second degree for killing Jim Webster last March. His bond was fixed at $2000, which he gave and was released from custody. His case is set for September 25.

Jim Vanduren, burglary, in jail.
Kit Rice, assault with intent to murder, in jail.

Jack Williams, murder in the first degree, in jail.

The contested election cases of W. O. Holmes vs. W. Wipprecht and J. Sid Smith vs. J. H. McCullough, which have been on trial since Monday, are still engaging the attention of the court. The recount of the Batts Store box, where, it is alleged, the illegal votes were cast, has been completed, and the examination of witnesses began this morning. The trial may continue for some days yet.

The hearing is before Judge Scott, instead of by jury trial. The contestants are represented by Tallafiero & Armstrong and W. T. Young, and the contestees by Judge V. B. Hudson of this city and Judge J. W. Woods of Houston.

KONE URGES BANKS TO AID FARMERS

Advocates Loans to Farmers to Enable Them to Market Cotton Slowly.

[By Associated Press.]
Austin, Texas, Sept. 11.—Commissioner of Agriculture Ed R. Kone today issued a statement urging every Texas banker to follow the example of San Antonio and Galveston banks, which have announced they will advance money to farmers to allow them to market their cotton slowly.

DAUGHTER FIRED SHOT

J. B. Tanner Declared Victim of Accident in Hookerville.

Caldwell, Texas, Sept. 10.—J. B. Tanner, a widower with one daughter, who lived at Hookerville, was killed early this morning in his field. A shotgun was the weapon used.

His daughter Effie, aged 18 years, fired the shot, but claims it was accidentally.

Justice Heslep held an inquest and instructed officers to hold the daughter for examining trial.—Houston Post.

Mr. J. J. Pressley of Cook's Point, near Caldwell, was here today and outlined to The Eagle the particulars of the tragedy. Mr. Pressley is firm in his belief that it was an accident.

INDIAN COMMISSIONER TO BE INVESTIGATED

[By Associated Press.]
Washington, Sept. 11.—The charges that Robert G. Valentine, who resigned yesterday as Indian commissioner, took intoxicating liquors into the Indian reservation in Oklahoma during an official visit, will be investigated by the department of justice, it was announced today.
